

National Innovation Day Celebration Activities Quarter I

Objective

To celebrate the National Innovation Day at our Institution campus.

Benefit in learning

The students celebrated the National Innovation Day by participating in the Presentation Contest organized by the Institutions Innovation Council.

Session Plan

The Institutions Innovation Council along with the Department of Automobile Engineering organized the celebration of National Innovation Day on 16th February, 2023 at the Institution Seminar Hall.

The students in different groups presented their ideas to compete. The ideas were really unique and the selected ideas were told to progress further to develop prototypes/models.
